LADIES' NOTES

The Civic Club of Harrisburg and Affiliates

“Civility with Purpose”

Volume 7, Issue 2, October 2015

The purpose of The Civic Club of Harrisburg (TCCH and TCCH Affiliates) is to promote and engage in civic and social activities which preserve the heritage of the Club and its landmark building; encourage cultural and historic interest in the community; contribute to improving the welfare and education of children and youth, seniors and those in need; and foster relationships with like-minded organizations.

TCCH invites you to “Harrisburg: Our Water’s Worth It!” Monday, October 5, 2015

TCCH’s own Jean Cutler, President of the Harrisburg Rain Barrel Coalition, will be joined at Overlook by Shannon Williams, P.E., Executive Director of Capital Region Water, and Geoffrey Knight, Chief Planner for the City of Harrisburg, to talk about how we can, collectively and individually, be a part of the clean water solution by presenting “Harrisburg: Our Water’s Worth It.”

As one of the privileged stewards of the beautiful Susquehanna River, the City of Harrisburg and Capital Region Water face challenges in the management of the city’s polluted storm water runoff and required upgrades to the city’s water treatment facility. Under a partial consent decree by EPA and DEP, Capital Region Water and Harrisburg must plan and implement programs that will meet compliance with the Clean Water Act within the next five years.

Over eighty percent of Harrisburg is served by a combined sewer system that collects and carries both rainwater and wastewater from homes and businesses in the same pipes. Under normal circumstance, this water is treated at the wastewater plant; however, during a severe wet weather event, the current system is designed to overflow at one or more of sixty permitted outfalls along Paxton Creek and the Susquehanna River. In 2013, Harrisburg had 83 combined sewer overflows!

Join us for this timely and important conversation about the state of our water supply. The program starts with a Meet and Greet Reception at 11:30 a.m., followed by lunch at noon and the presentation. Gail Bishop, TCCH President, will also give a brief business report. And, thanks to a grant from the PA Department of Environmental Protection, individuals attending the program will have the opportunity to purchase a rain barrel for only $25.00!

Reservations are required! Lunch costs $16 and can be reserved by calling (717) 234-6736 or emailing civicclubhbg@gmail.com by noon Thursday, October 1 (checks made payable to the Civic Club of Harrisburg). The program alone is free and open to the public, and will begin at 12:45 p.m.

The Civic Club of Harrisburg Affiliates and
The Pennsylvania Breast Cancer Coalition presents

Tea & Conversation with Former White House Chef

John Moeller

We are very excited to announce that The Civic Club of Harrisburg (TCCH) will hold a "Tea and Conversation" with Former White House Chef John Moeller on Sunday, October 18, 2015 from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Overlook, 612 North Front Street, Harrisburg. Proceeds support the Pennsylvania Breast Cancer Coalition (PBCC) and TCCH's landmark building restoration fund. Chef Moeller is an engaging speaker who will share secrets to feeding three First Families and numerous heads of state as part of this charity tea & silent auction.

The cost is $50 per person and the event will include traditional tea fare, remarks by Chef Moeller, and silent auction. Anchorwoman Alicia Richards of ABC27 will serve as the guest emcee, and State Representative Sue Helm and State Representative Patty Kim will serve as honorary Co-Chairwomen.

Moeller is a Lancaster native, the author of Dining at the White House, and the owner of an elite Lancaster-based catering business called "A State of Affairs." He joined the White House kitchen in 1992 and prepared personalized presidential dishes for 13 years. Chef Moeller will be signing his book Dining at the White House: From the President's Table to Yours after his presentation. The book costs $35.00 plus tax and can be purchased at the Tea.

The Civic Club of Harrisburg and The Pennsylvania Breast Cancer Coalition have joined together for this special fundraising event. It is important that our daughters and granddaughters will not suffer from this disease, which currently strikes one in eight women. With this desire in mind, TCCH has opened their historic building Overlook in an effort to help raise money for ongoing breast cancer research.

If you would like to attend the October 18th tea, please RSVP by sending your check by October 11, 2015 to The Civic Club of Harrisburg, Attn: Joan Bretz at PO Box 61407, Harrisburg, PA 17106-1407. Checks should be made payable to TCCHA. Parking is free in the city on Sundays, so guests are encouraged to use public spaces on State and Second Streets. For questions, email civicclubhbg@gmail.com.

The committee will be looking for volunteers to setup the morning of October 18th. If you are available to help, please contact Gail Bishop at gbishop3@verizon.net. If you would like to place a business card size ad in the program booklet for $75.00, please contact Kathy Gates at kgates808@comcast.net. We hope to see you there!

Garden News

----Mary Beth Lehtimaki

The weather has been hot and little rain has fallen. We are all hot and thirsty including our garden. This has kept the garden committee busy watering not only the planters which need water daily but the lawn and the flower beds as well. Since I last wrote, we have had four events. We had two weddings and the brides complimented us on the gardens, and a City Forum where we received many compliments as people were coming and going. Again, thanks to all who have weeded and watered to keep our grounds looking great for the community and our clients. As each of you are marking your calendars, you may want to consider lending a hand to the committee in keeping our grounds at their best by volunteering when we have our fall clean up in November.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Our joint fundraiser with the Pennsylvania Breast Cancer Coalition (PBCC), a first for us, is fast approaching and the final preparations are being made. October 18 will be a delightful afternoon featuring traditional tea fare along with a silent auction. Special events include our speaker, former White House Chef John Moeller, to share the secrets of the first families of both H.W. and George Bush and the Clintons. His humor is infectious. Holly, from One Good Woman, will be there to explain and brew special tea. Guests include State Representatives Sue Helm and Patty Kim and Pat Halpin-Murphy, founder of the PBCC. Channel 27's Alicia Richards will be the emcee. The committee has put in long hours and many meetings to put this together. We are looking forward to both member and community support.

A big happening and a big welcome are extended to James Imler as the new leader of the The Civic Club of Harrisburg Affiliates. Jim is the husband of fellow club member, Judy Imler, who is active on TCCH's Board. She is both Recording and Corresponding Secretary. This is truly a family affair and we heartily welcome Jim.

Thanks and hope to see you at our upcoming events!

TCCCH President, Gail Bishop

KICKING OFF THE 2015/16 TCCH LUNCHEON SEASON WITH A GREAT STORY, AND A SHUFFLE, STEP, BALL-CHANGE!

Isn't it wonderful when a lot of good things come in one package? That certainly seemed to be the case of our kick-off speaker, Vicki Riordan. For being so modest, she is really quite famous. Just Google her name and you can review all the things that she has achieved!

Vicki is outgoing, sensitive, and caring. Strong and confident, Ms. Riordan shared the very distressing story of her abusive marriage, which had a happy ending with the creation of Vicki's Tap Pups! In addition to sharing her very touching life story, Vicki read an insightful passage from her book, Encore Performance: How One Woman's Passion Helped a Town Tap into Happiness. Watching a number of lively video shorts about her classes and their public performances were entertaining and insightful!

Tap Pups boasts more than 500 members who range in age from 21 to 89. For more information about Vicki and her Tap Pups, go to her website at: www.vickistappups.com.

TCCH's OWN JEWEL IN THE CROWN

Mira Lloyd Dock and Other Conservation Movers and Shakers Profiled by WITF

Pennsylvania has a long, significant, and stunning legacy of environmental activism, now justly being promoted through a statewide initiative, Pennsylvania's Conservation Heritage: Telling the Story. As part of that program, The State Museum of Pennsylvania on September 15 hosted a preview of two new short documentaries on Pennsylvania conservation legends produced and to be broadcast by WITF-TV in November. Several TCCH members attended. One of the videos highlighted the environmental achievements of The Civic Club of Harrisburg's co-founder, Mira Lloyd Dock, and prominently featured The Civic Club of Harrisburg. Here is a synopsis:

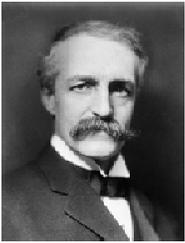

Mira Lloyd Dock: A Beautiful Crusade

In 1899 women were seen not heard. But not Mira Lloyd Dock, a little known Progressive Era activist. This botanist, forester and preservationist brought the City Beautiful movement to Pennsylvania's Capitol city. She helped transform it from a grimy disease-ridden mess to a cleanly manicured and modern state Capitol. During Dock's 12 years of service on the Pennsylvania Forest Commission, one million acres of forest became reserves. She was the first woman in the world to be appointed to a public forest commission. And, she was the first woman to hold a job in Pennsylvania government, either appointed or elected.

The second documentary is about former Pennsylvania Governor, Gifford Pinchot an environmental visionary and advocate.

Gifford Pinchot's Conservation Legacy

As America's first-trained forester and conservationist, Gifford Pinchot used his wealth, intellect, and power to protect the nation's natural resources for "the greatest good, for the greatest number, in the long run." In 1898, Pinchot was appointed as Chief of the Division of Forestry in the U.S. Department of Agriculture under President William McKinley. In 1905, he became head of the newly established United States Forest Service. Working with President Theodore Roosevelt, he played a significant role in shaping American conservation policy and expanding the nation's forest reserves. As Pennsylvania's only governor serving two non-consecutive terms, Pinchot helped pull farmers out of the mud with the establishment of some of the first paved rural roads in the commonwealth. During the great Depression he put Pennsylvanians back to work regenerating clear cut forests and planting trees, providing the model for the national Civilian Conservation Corps program.

The Civic Club of Harrisburg has invited WITF, PA Department of Environmental Protection, PA Department of Conservation and Natural Resources and the PA Historical and Museum Commission to host a viewing of the documentaries at Overlook.

We're also planning a bus trip to Grey Towers, the Pike County estate of Governor Pinchot and his equally notable spouse, Cornelia. It is a delightful property with wonderful stories about the Pinchot family. Milford, PA, the town where Grey Towers is located, hosted the first Yale Forestry School, which was, of course, promulgated by Gifford Pinchot. Stay tuned for more news about these two exciting events!

The thirty minute documentaries were produced by WITF Public Media as part of the Pennsylvania Conservation Heritage Project and will premiere on WITF on Thursday, November 12, from 8:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. The third documentary will profile Ralph Abele of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission. Visit the Pennsylvania Conservation Heritage's website at: www.paconservationheritage.org for more information.

New Member Orientation Reception

Mark your calendar for the New Member Orientation Reception to be held Thursday, October 22 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the Overlook clubhouse. This wine and cheese reception gives new members an opportunity to meet the Executive Board members as well as other new and renewing members in a social environment. New members will receive an e-mail invitation in early October, but all other members are invited to attend and welcome our new members.

Beth Cornell Appointed to Parks Foundation

Civic Club member Beth Cornell has been appointed to the Harrisburg Parks Foundation. Beth was selected to represent the Civic Club because of our location on River Front Park and our historic involvement in the City Beautiful projects. This Parks Foundation committee has been created to raise funds to improve and maintain the 27 parks and playgrounds in Harrisburg. In August, TCCH hosted a golf team and was a sign sponsor at the newly reorganized Mayor's Golf Outing. This event helped to raise funds for the Parks Foundation. Beth represented TCCH at the outing.

Also this summer, Beth was one of three selected from the Park Foundation to serve on the "Think Tank" for developing a new City Strategic Plan. Harrisburg has been without a plan for forty years. Everyone can voice his or her ideas at the many public meetings offered throughout the city and through the facebook page at BeHbg.com. Congratulations Beth.
