THE CIVIC CLUB OF HARRISBURG HOSTS PROGRAM FEATURING STATE REPRESENTATIVE PATTY KIM

On Monday, November 4, The Civic Club of Harrisburg (TCCH), Harrisburg's oldest service organization, will feature a presentation, "Highlights in the PA Legislature," by Representative Patty Kim. The free public program begins at 12:45 p.m. and will be held at the TCCH clubhouse at 612 N. Front Street, Harrisburg.

Kim serves the citizens of the 103rd legislative district in Harrisburg. She was elected to the state House in November of 2012 and formerly was a news anchor and reporter and Harrisburg City Councilwoman.

"TCCH is proud and honored to host this program where Representative Kim will share highlights of her first year in the legislature," said Gail Bishop, program chair. "We look forward to hearing about 'hot button' issues facing the Commonwealth and the challenges for women in politics."

Guests should make reservations to attend the program. For more information or to RSVP, call the club at (717) 234-6736, line #1 or at the club's email address: civicclubhbg@gmail.com.

TCCH is a service organization that supports and initiates community projects and provides meeting space to non-profit partners and others. The club, with a motto of "Civility with Purpose," offers programs that instill civility and build a better and greater Harrisburg.

The purpose of the club is to promote and engage in civic and social activities which preserve the heritage of the club and its landmark building; encourage cultural and historical interest in the community; contribute to improving the welfare and education of children and youth, seniors and those in need; and foster relationships with like-minded organizations.
